

Marjorie Kaplan

CURRENT ACTIVITIES AND PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Since 2016

Independent Entrepreneur

Advisor, Coach, Professional Mentor and Speaker in the Area of Content Production

Since 2016

Board Member of The Grierson Trust

Charity organization to promote documentary film making

1997 - 2016

Discovery Communications

2015 - 2016

President Global Content

2014 - 2015

Group President, Discovery Channel, TLC & Animal Planet

2007 - 2014

Group President, Animal Planet, Science Channel and Velocity

1997 - 2007

Senior Vice President, Children's Programming and Products

1993 - 1996

Lancit Media Productions

Executive Vice President

1988 - 1993

Kraft General Foods

Director, Advertising

1982 - 1987

Ogilvy & Mather

Vice President, Account Supervisor

Education

Bachelor's degree, Semiotics, Brown University, Rhode Island, United States of America

Marjorie Kaplan has been a senior executive in the media industry for over twenty years, in particular, in the area of content production and prior to that in advertising.

NON-EXECUTIVE ROLES IN OTHER COMPANIES

— None

PERSONAL DATA

Year of birth:

1955

Nationality:

US-American

Residence:

London/United Kingdom

